FOREWORD

High School is a stepping stone to the future, a future made of days well lived. The students at Altavista High School strive each day for the key to this future, their education . . .

Look to this day,

For it is life, the very life of life.

In its brief span lie all the verities

and realities of our existence

The glory of action,

The splendor of beauty,

The bliss of growth.

For yesterday is but a shadow

And tomorrow is only a dream.

But today well lived

Makes every yesterday a dream of happiness

And every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Look well, therefore to this day.

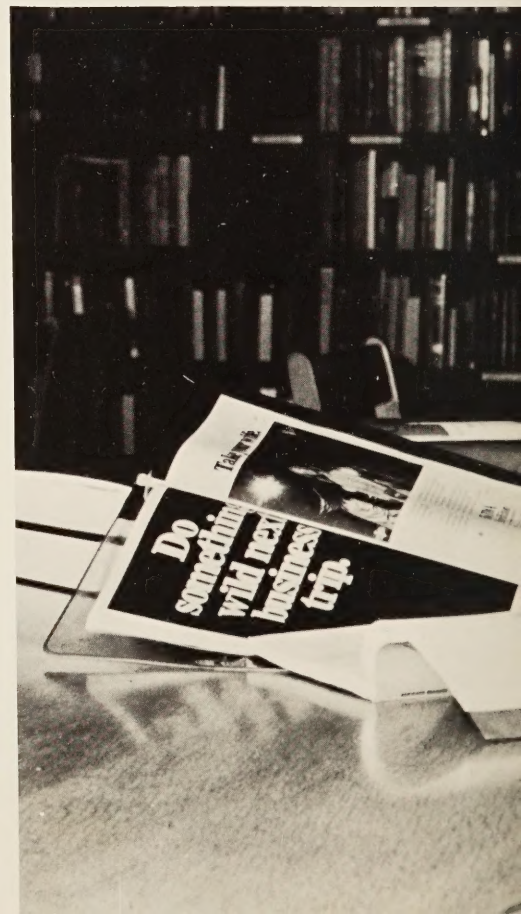

LOOK

The Glory
of Action . . .

TO THIS DAY . . .

The Splendor
of Beauty . . .

The Bliss
Growth

The background of the entire page is a faded, sepia-toned photograph. It shows a large, multi-story school building with a prominent central entrance and several wings. The building is surrounded by trees and a grassy area. In the foreground, there's a fence and more trees. The overall scene is a typical school campus.

Fine Arts Department

MR. JAMES BATEMAN, JR.
B.S., East Carolina University
Band, Chorus

Two new teachers complete the fine arts department: Mr. Bateman, band director and Mr. Fitch, art teacher. The band had five representatives in the all state, attended both the district and the Dogwood Festivals this spring and held two concerts. The chorus formed the nucleus for the musical production, "Brigadoon". Mr. Fitch is the first full-time art teacher at Altavista. From the Industrial Arts Building, his classes have finished projects in ceramics, watercolors and drawing.

MR. PETER FITCH
B.A., Lynchburg College
Art I, II, III, Ceramics

Mrs. Ramey has gained 241 new books for the library in addition to the one obtained from the government project "Title 2".

Vocational Office Training

With the addition of a new Business course teacher, Mr. Claytor, the Business department is preparing A.H.S. students to "look to tomorrow".

In Typing, Mrs. Short and Mr. Claytor strive to help students improve their typing skills. Shorthand is also taught along with other secretarial skills. There is also a new Vocational Office Training course offered to Seniors to become familiar with advanced secretarial techniques.

In the Distributive Education classes, Mr. Foushee instructs the students in commercial business.

MR. JOHN L. CLAYTOR, JR.

MRS. JUDY BATEMAN
B.S., East Carolina University
English 11

Altavista offers courses in English, Spanish, French and Latin. The Spanish program has been expanded under Miss Akers, department chairman, who has begun teaching third year Spanish for the first time. Mrs. Rountrey continues to be the most versatile member of the department teaching Latin, Creative Writing, and the ALM series of French II.

Mrs. Lobbregt, Mrs. Lair, Mrs. Martin, along with the new teachers Mrs. Hawley and Mrs. Bateman complete the department.

Math Students Explore the "New"

The Math department at Altavista High School offers a wide variety of selectivity. Its purpose is to provide for the needs of each student in the future. For this reason, college preparatory students have the opportunity to take geometry, algebra and advanced math, while the business students take general and business math.

MRS. JOYCE CARPER

Work Staffs Make A.H.S. Run Smoothly and Efficiently

Francis Morgan and Carson Davis smile at the thought of keeping AHS clean.

Shag Crews performs his duties untiringly.

Classes

As the final days of our 1968 school year near and graduation comes into view, we as Seniors take a proud look at today, a long and wistful look at yesterday and finally a hopeful look into tomorrow.

Our Senior Class business was so ably handled by Carolyn Barwick, President; Janet Rice, Vice President; Larry Dalton, Secretary; and Linda Witt, Treasurer, with all the complications of ordering invitations, measuring for caps and gowns, and planning for Class Night.

Our float "Senior's Bedtime Story" was judged the best in the rained out Homecoming Parade and won the spirit chain in the school wide spirit contest. We struggled through mid-term exams and began the home stretch toward graduation.

All in all it's been a wonderful year. 1968 will long be remembered as "our year"—the year we graduated from Altavista High School!

Class of '69

Remember when . . . we elected Edward Frazier as president, Chris Dodson as vice-president, Linda Sandidge as secretary, and Scott Craig as treasurer?

Remember when . . . we won second place in the Homecoming Parade with our float entitled "Member when we were District Champs." And remember all of the work and tissue paper that went into it?!

Remember when . . . our junior class journeyed to Jamestown and Williamsburg for a day of fun and dizzy excitement? Remember how our feet ached?!

Remember when . . . we were all dying to order our class rings and then nobody knew what they wanted?!

Remember when . . . we labored over the prom and sighed at last when we were there?!

And remember how . . . we still long for the day when we'll be seniors.

Class of 1970

Early in November, the Sophomore Class traveled to Washington, D.C. by train where we visited the National Aquarium, the Capitol, and the Smithsonian Institution.

During football season, the Sophomores enthusiastically supported the team and enjoyed working on the float for Homecoming. Attendants on the Homecoming Court were Betty Witt and Jo Barnard.

Our biggest money-making project was the Sophomore Dance held in March.

We feel that we have had an exciting and successful year and we are really looking forward to next year.

Marcia Place, Susan Clanton, and Pat Freeman work on letters for the freshman class float.

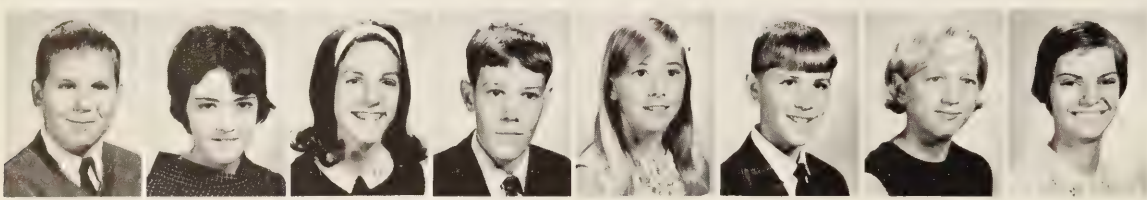

We, the Class of '72, look into this day as a day of promise, opportunity and fulfillment. But our class is not just standing there, looking, we're making our fellow student body sit up and take notice in our presence.

Under the able leadership of President Mitchell Reaves; S.C.A. representative Diane Hall; Treasurer Phillip Reynolds, Secretary Carma Fauntleroy, and vice president Tim Hogan, we feel we have accomplished a great deal.

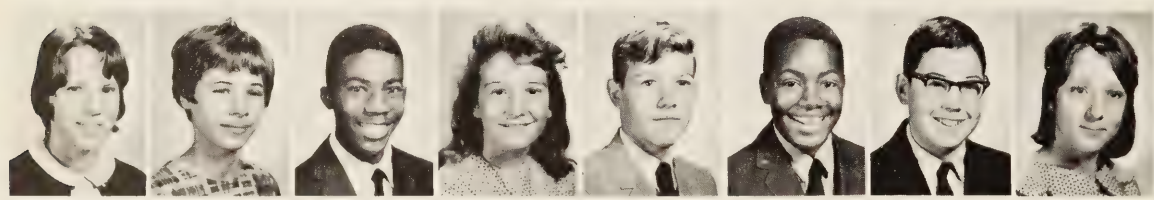

We began our first year at A.H.S. with a very memorable class dance. This first taste of high school life prompted our all out participation in the Football Homecoming activities.

In December a trip to Chapel Hill, North Carolina left us with stars in our eyes as we departed from Morehead Planetarium.

Nuntius Staff "Looks to This Day"

Ann Price and Carolyn Barwick discuss the cropping of a Yearbook picture.

The work of the Nuntius Staff began early in the summer, when the entire staff met to get assignments and to start soliciting ads for the coming year.

When a theme was finally chosen, the staff set out to work to meet their deadlines.

Many new features were added to our Yearbook, such as new covers and end sheets this year.

With a new advisor, Mrs. Hawley, the whole staff truly "Looks To This Day."

Mr. Dodson, the Business sponsor gladly receives money from a subscription seller.

Meeting Deadlines, Impossible!

Ed Frazier and Dunn Dillard try to decide between sport or sports section.

Mrs. Hawley, sponsor, tries hard not to look upset about the unmet deadlines.

Darlene McClellan, faculty editor and typist, patiently works on her section.

Wayne Vaughan and Don Cox find that ads aren't as easy as they thought!

Vista

The Vista, our student magazine, got off to a slow start this year, yet managed, despite all difficulties, to put out an issue before Christmas. The Vista is made up of the writing and artwork of the student body. It gives everyone an opportunity to see his own work in print. But strangely the main problem was in getting pupils to contribute their work. A good deal of the material came from the creative writing classes of Mrs. Rountry, the co-sponsor of the Vista.

In spite of this, in spite of mimeograph machine troubles, and in spite of all the other problems and delays, the Vista keeps rolling along, providing the students and the faculty with a display of inspiration and originality.

The Colonel is written primarily by the journalism class under the direction of Mrs. Lair. It keeps the students up to date on the accomplishments of the school, and has editorials about current issues in the school, aided by political cartoons.

To improve student-administration communication, Mr. Cline wrote a column "Frankly Speaking" in which he dealt directly with current problems and issues.

To boost circulation and student interest, the Colonel has added the Scholastic Roto, a magazine supplement published especially for high school newspapers. Published by the National Scholastic Press Association of the University of Minnesota, it gives coverage of the high school world through books, arts, fashions, careers and sports.

Lucille Barrett, editor, Paula Overstreet, business manager, and Mrs. Lair go over final copy.

The SCA is not a club, it is an organization in which every student in Altavista High is a member. The students govern themselves by elected representatives which make up the Council.

This year, the SCA undertook a number of projects. They sponsored the successful student lounge and helped make way for the installation of a desperately needed intercom system. They also carried a fund raising project for the Campbell County Library, gave a Faculty Tea, and collected goods for needy families at Christmas time.

Randy Carpenter, Secretary; Lee Carpenter, President; Mrs. Cocke, Advisor; Lefty Hart, Vice President; and David Jones, Treasurer, provided able leadership in SCA this year.

Library Assistants

Besides keeping themselves extremely busy shelving and checking out books, rebinding and replacing old copies, and cataloging new books, this year the library staff, tired of the drab interior, decided to brighten things up a bit with some paint. The result is a cheerful, pleasant and gay room where even studying is more pleasant.

of America

The largest club at Altavista High School is the Altavista Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America. Their over-all goal is to help individuals improve personal, family and community relationships, now and in the future.

This year the F.H.A. emphasized community projects, including the nursing home, hospitals and packages to servicemen in Viet Nam.

As usual they held their Christmas tea, the F.H.A. dance, and the mother-daughter banquet.

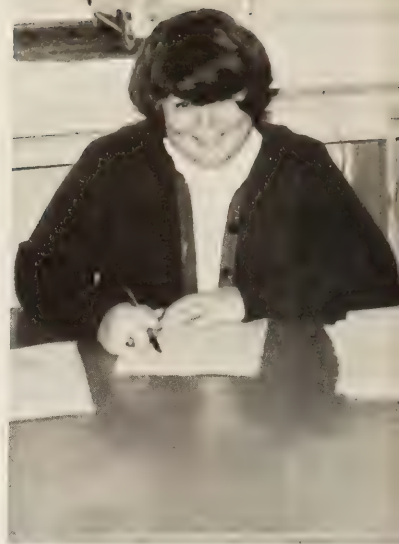

The Helen Phillips Chapter of Future Teachers of America is trying to acquaint and interest students in the expanding field of teaching and to lay the foundations from which are built good teachers.

This year the twenty-five girls who are planning to be teachers got a taste of their chosen vocation during American Education Week when each girl taught her fellow classmates for one day.

One of the main projects of the club is to give a scholarship to a graduating senior who plans to enter the teaching profession. They worked feverishly all year to raise the money by holding a slave sale, running the popcorn machine, and having a "cake walk."

These girls have a high goal; they seek to encourage the most qualified student to accept the challenge that furthering education offers.

Future Business Leaders of America

Both the FBLA and the DE clubs strive to provide an opportunity for developing leadership ability while familiarizing the members with the operation and make-up of business.

This year the FBLA sponsored several money making projects to send delegates to the state convention and took a field trip to a nearby industrial office in addition to holding a spelling contest. DE activities included the District Fall Rally held between September 15 and November 15, celebration of National DECA week and were climaxed with the employer-employee banquet held in May.

The National Honor Society, founded on scholarship, leadership, service, and character, initiates many worthwhile projects for the school and community while it brings the accomplishments of outstanding high school students to the attention of their classmates, parents, and community. They gave books to the library to complement this project of former years. A contribution of clothes of the Faith Home became a service project for the community. Money was given to support an overseas orphan which made him their own.

Twenty-one new members began their first year in the National Honor Society and participated actively on monthly programs of scholarship achievement and activities.

Dr. John Trotti, a graduate of Davidson, and minister of the Altavista Presbyterian Church, spoke to the society on the meaning, purpose and importance of their basic ideals, scholarship, leadership, character and service. Joy McGhee offered a program, with pictures of her trip to Europe in the summer.

Forensics Club

Are you interested in public speaking, prose and poetry reading, or debating? If so, the place for you is the Forensics Club.

The members study the techniques of these arts of oral presentation, and engage in competitions with each other as well as with other schools.

This past year they not only sent representatives to district tournaments, but also performed for the school in the choral reading in the Christmas pageant.

The club offers the opportunity to learn to develop your speaking and debating talents, and more importantly, to think clearly and present your ideas and opinions in a well-organized, intelligent manner.

To Foster Brotherhood, Individual Development and Christian Growth

Altavista's three Hi-Y Clubs perform many services throughout the year. They have Christmas and Easter devotions along with the assembly program held during Christmas. Also during the holiday a toy dance is held to collect toys for the needy in the community.

During the summer, they sponsor the Blood Mobile at the National Guard Armory. Last year a junior and senior member of each of the senior clubs attended the Model General Assembly. At this assembly the Hi-Y members assume the roles of Virginia delegates and representatives and discuss and pass bills as if it were a regular session of the General Assembly.

The Clubs celebrate National Hi-Y Week by having the mayor declare the week of October 29-November 4 as National Hi-Y Week. During the year the Junior Tri-Hi-Y sponsored a Teacher's Appreciation day in which a special effort was made to recognize the efforts of the faculty at A.H.S.

The Folk Music Club was originated for the purpose of enjoying and appreciating folk music through active participation on the part of the members.

This year the group has branched out into pop and country music, and has discovered many hidden talents in these fields. They have entertained at several assemblies throughout the year. The Spring Folk Music Festival was held with great success.

With the money in their treasury, they were able to purchase a five-string banjo, a tambourine and an autoharp to add to their growing list of instruments. At the same time, they are continuing to build a library of folk music.

La Sociedad Cervantes

After three years, Altavista High School once more has a Spanish Club. They call themselves La Sociedad Cervantes, the Cervantes scholar. The purpose of the club is to learn more about life, costumes, language, dialects, and people of the Spanish-speaking countries. To do this, many members have gotten Spanish-speaking pen-pals.

They hope to adopt a child from a Spanish-speaking country. For $10 a month they can supply him with food, milk, clothing, shelter, and school supplies. They are raising money for this in the traditional method—selling popcorn—what else?

The club also publishes a Spanish newsletter with the aid of Miss Akers, sponsor.

J.V. Basketball

The J.V.'s began the season enthusiastically under the capable leadership of Coach Peak ably assisted by Mr. Brice, a new member of the Physical Education Dept. Plagued by injuries, players advancing to Varsity and apathy, the team was unable to complete the season.

Despite a hard rush, David Mason completed this pass for good yardage.

The Colonels's defense stopped this play dead.

Dennis Tweedy, an outstanding member of the squad took the handoff from David Mason and charged on up the field.

Colonels Pos

7-3 Season

Playing to a capacity crowd for the last home game of the season against Rutsburg, the Colonels gave the fans their money's worth.

Butch Kidd, the Colonels' top defensive player, moves into the huddle with Ed Frazier and Dunn Dillard to get that ball.

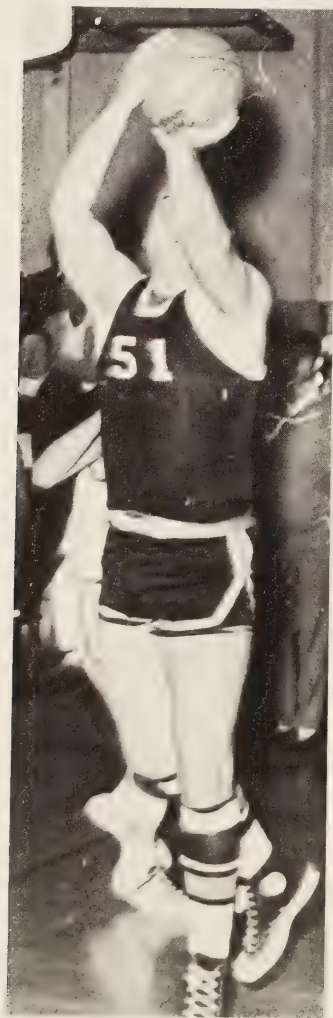

"Unsung Heroes," Managers Jeff Cocke and Keith Stevens Work Hard and Long for the Team.

Jeffrey Cocke and Keith Stevens were always the first ones to be at practice and games and the last ones to leave. Their devoted work contributed to the team's success.

Court o l o n e l

Husky Leonard Brown drove past his defensive man and got the pretty jumper.

Butch Kidd and Ed Frazier look on to the action ready to pounce on the opponents.

The team in typical time out "hit the floor" to get the ball.

Men in Action

Instructions from Coach Hawley.

Edward Frazier, A.H.S.'s leading scorer, gets the pass from team mate Wilkerson and scores for the layup despite the crowd of defensive players.

Senior Lonnie Hughey goes way above the rest of the courtmen to score this pretty jumper during the Dan River game.

New Coach And New Spirit Mark 67-68 Season

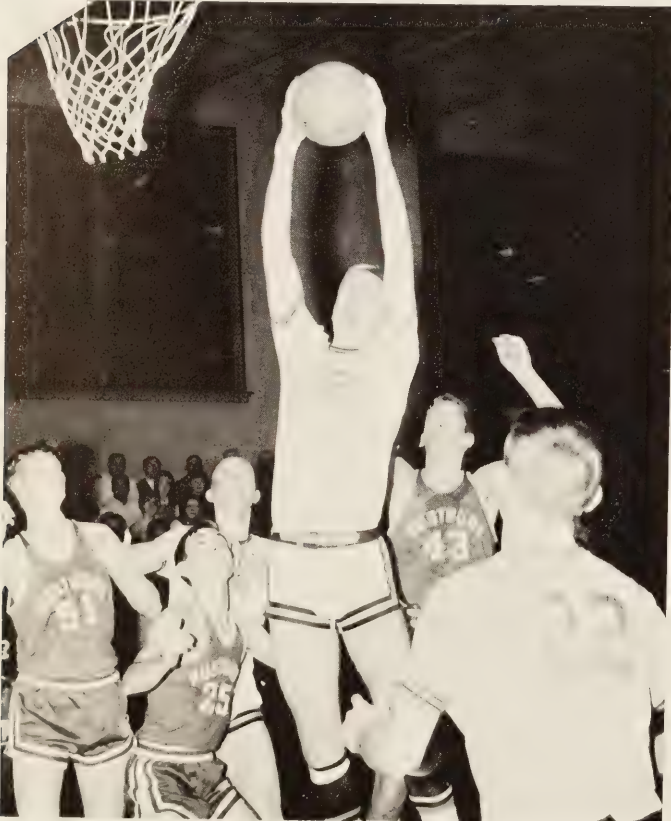

The Dan River season opener was deceiving for Colonel fans; they saw no spectacular offense, no dramatic, breathtaking shots, just lots of hustle and a tight man-to-man defense. The next victory against Rustburg in a close 45-44 game indicated that this club was going to be one to watch as the season progressed.

No one was disappointed as the Colonels marched over every team in sight using a time-proven formula of strong teamwork, tight defense and lots of go-power.

Next year should prove to be even more exciting and rewarding. Although the team will surely miss the rebounding of Lonnie Hughey and the enthusiastic spirit of Captain Kidd, the bench looks full of lots of promise.

Coach Hawley between halves reviews one of the team offenses.

Dunn Dillard in a typical game situation pulls the ball off the backboards and puts it back up for an easy basket.

Leonard Brown in the last away game of the season split his pants hurrying to make those two points.

J.V.'s Have Exciting and Profitable Season Under Coach Peake

Mr. Peake works with the boys individually.

During a time out at the last home game of the season against Rustburg, Mrs. Hawley spurs the girls on to victory.

Dottie Bohannon
co-captain

This year was definitely a rebuilding one for the girls' basketball team. Nine of the 13 members who finished the season were newcomers to the game. Lack of playing experience and foot injuries had to be made up by extra hustle and teamwork. Seasoned players, Dottie Bohannon and Donna Mann and Cynthia Dellinger provided the stability and leadership for the new ball club.

The girls posted a 7-3 record placing third in the southern division. With 5 frosh, 3 sophomores, 5 juniors, and only 1 senior, the girls are anxiously anticipating next year.

Cynthia Dellinger
co-captain

Finished Third in South

Girls' managers Landa Sandiage, Debbie Chumley, and Myra Rice kept game statistics, swept floors, and played nurse to the girls' team this year.

At the Dan River game Cindy fights to steal the ball while freshman Diane Hughes gets ready to move.

Mrs. Marsh Keeps Scores and Adds Enthusiasm to Team

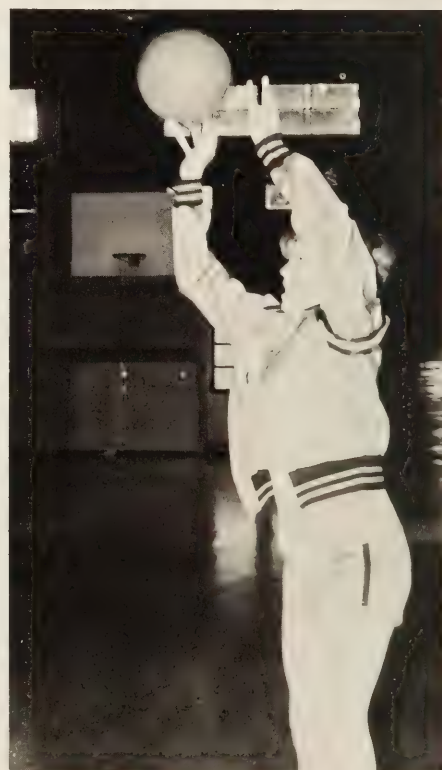

Cindy Dellinger, leading rebounder and Dottie Bo, top scorer, check over game stats with Coach Hawley.

Dottie Bohannon and Diane Hughes Lead Offensive

Sweet Dreams

A surreal landscape with a grid of light rays on the ground and a forest of dark, spiky trees. The light rays are arranged in a perspective that creates a sense of depth, converging towards a horizon. The trees are dark and have a jagged, almost crystalline appearance. The overall tone is dreamlike and ethereal.

Sweet, Sweet Dreams of you,
Every night I go through.
Why can't I forget my past
And live my life like you do?
Instead I'm having Sweet Dreams about you.

You, you don't love me, it's plain
I should have known you'd never wear my name.
I, I should hate you girl, my whole life through,
Instead I'm having Sweet Dreams about you.

Mrs. Key apparently has analyzed the punch and found it suitable for Mr. Key.

It's plain to see, Pat Pugh and Rudy Boley will be having "Sweet Dreams" of each other in years to come.

"Sweet Dreams" Are Sweet!

A.H.S. students enjoy dancing to the music of the Townsman Orchestra.

Sandra Wilson and Connie Guthrie enjoy the warmth of the bonfire before beginning cheers for the pep rally.

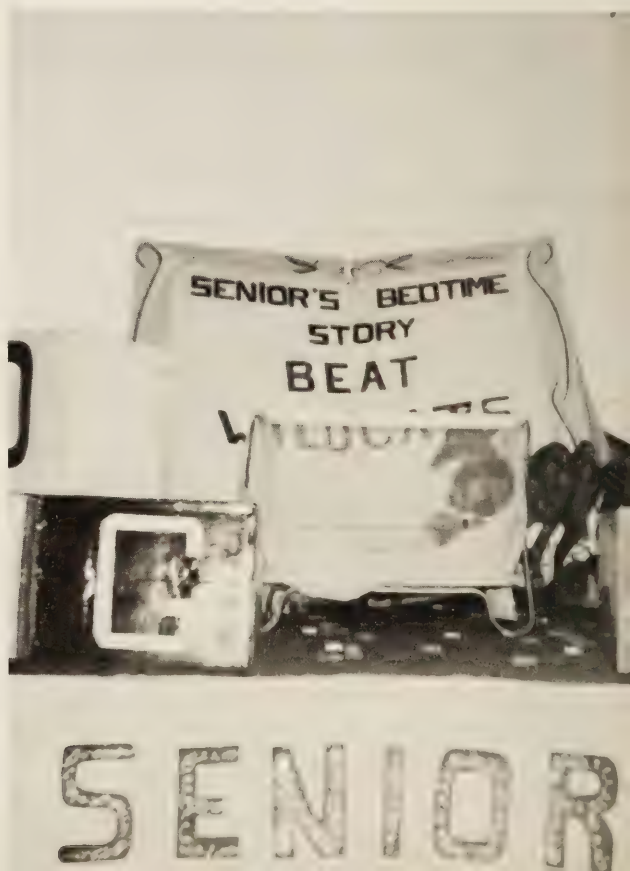

Colonels' Arnold Hull (31) gets set to tackle Dan River quarterback Junior Fowler (11). Hull made the tackle and the Colonels won the homecoming game 38-6.

Parade and Bonfire Begin Homecoming Festivities

Drum Major Paula Wilkes and Majorettes Ann Price, Donna Mann, Donna Hendricks and Marcia Place pose before marching the parade route.

A pouring rain marked the Homecoming parade this year, but the Senior float came through with flying colors to win first place.

We express our special appreciation to the Altavista Journal and to Mr. Cal Gibson for all of their help in making this book possible.

Putting together a yearbook is more than just taking and printing pictures, more than just putting down some facts about high school life.

It's an attempt to capture not only what has happened in the course of one school year, that for some of us has truly flown but it is more an effort to capture the essence of that life, the spirit of that life that makes you want to drag out the yearbook years from now and look it over. For high school is more than merely going to classes, doing papers, attending games and dances. It's a stage, an important milestone in our development as adults. The best thing about high school is the people . . . the feelings and the memories that brought us close to one another, if only for a few moments, and that's what this book has attempted to capture.

Mrs. Tolbert,
Well another year has gone and we are about to senior & hope. I hope you have a nice vacation this summer and when you come back year I hope you will be settled and ready for another year with me.

Mrs. Lobbest,

Well my Junior year is almost over and
I sure will miss old Altavista
High and especially my wonderful teachers. Mrs. Lobbest I never would help and kindness I want to thank of made it. I want to thank you for all the help you've given me; not only as a teacher but as a friend also.
I want to wish you and your family all the luck &
happiness in your future years to come.

Love always,
Felicia Jones Hall 68

P.S.

Remember Grant

Remember Lee

But most of all

Remember ME!

Mrs. Lobbregt,
Well another year has come to an end and you are still trying to put up with me.
I feel that this year has not been a complete loss & have had a lot of fun as you know. I hope you have a nice and have a lot of fun and I hope you let me back in your class next year. I promise I won't be any worse ~~than~~ than I was this year. Hi!
"Love"
Robbie

Mrs. Lobbregt,
It's been great having you as a teacher these past years. You have helped me a great deal and I will never forget it.
I thank you for everything.

"Love"
Henry

Mrs. Lobbregt
Well another year is over and we will soon be big seniors.
I have waited a long time for this day and I am really looking forward to it.
Mrs. Lobbregt I think you from the bottom of my heart for being so good to me. Your help has been more to me than you will ever know. I will always be in your debt for it. May God bless you and keep you. Best of luck. You are a wonderful person. Thanks for everything.
Love Ya
lots
